SHORT BIO

McKada is a bold, soulful reggae artist from Kingston, Jamaica, blending conscious lyrics, spiritual fire, and poetic soul into a powerful, healing sound. Her music embodies what she calls “sweet and spicy”: uplifting energy with sharp lyrical commentary. Her single “Love Is Essential” became an anthem for healing and advocacy, earning praise from fans who describe her work as “music that restores the soul.” A Top 10 finalist in the JCDC Festival Song Competition, McKada has shared stages with reggae icons including Warrior King, Sizzla, Luciano, Christopher Martin, Turbulence, Bongo Herman, Queen Ifrica and Fred Locks. She recently delivered a stellar performance at the One Nation Reggae Festival in Sierra Leone, West Africa, marking a powerful milestone in her rising global presence. With her new single “Buil a Vibe” and an upcoming full-length album on the way, McKada continues to carve a bold, conscious path-rooted in reggae tradition yet resonating worldwide.
